

September 26, 2011

FAMILY FUN STORIES

(fill in the blanks)

An Outdoor Adventure

It is finally springtime and today my Dad took me on an outdoor adventure to the _____(noun). He usually has to work at the _____(place) but today he took a special holiday! We woke up at _____(time) and packed the car with our favorite _____(noun) and _____(noun). We said goodbye to Mom and headed to the _____(noun), our favorite adventure spot. The weather was _____(adjective) and we made sure we put on sunscreen to protect from the _____(noun). We spent hours exploring, _____(verb-ing), and _____(verb-ing). By the end of the day we were very _____(adjective), and ready to go _____(place). I _____(verb-past tense) the whole drive home. When we got home I made sure to thank my Dad for such a _____(adjective) day!

September 26, 2011

FAMILY FUN STORIES

(fill in the blanks)

The Beach

This weekend my family and I took a trip to the beach! We packed the car full of _____(noun), _____(noun), and _____(noun) along with all our favorite snacks. We made sure to bring our favorite _____(noun) so we could sing on the car ride down. By the time Dad finished _____(verb-ing) the car there was hardly any space for us to fit! We made the tight squeeze, and happily headed to _____(name) beach for a great day. I sang my favorite song, _____(name of song), the whole way there. Whenever we go to the beach, Mom likes to _____(verb), while Dad always _____(verb-s). Me and my _____(noun) like to play _____(game) and make _____(noun). One of my favorite things to do is _____(verb) in the sand. I also like to _____(verb) in the ocean. By the time we leave we are all very _____(adjective) and sleepy. The car gets filled with _____(noun) and dad always has to wash it the next day. Even if I have to help him, it's always worth it and makes me say _____(expression) the next time I hear we're going to the beach!